

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION

Madison, Nebraska

March 4, 2008

The Board of Equalization of Madison County, Nebraska met at 9:00 A.M.

Advance notice of meeting was published in the Thursday, February 28, 2008 edition of The Norfolk Daily News. A copy of said notice was mailed to each Board member. An affidavit of acknowledgment of receipt of notice of meeting as published was executed. Chairman Rick Uhlir called the meeting to order and notified the public of the location of the information regarding the Open Meeting Act posted in the meeting room.

Present: Commissioners Jerry McCallum, Rick Uhlir, and Lee Klein, Deputy County Assessor Judy Bickley, and County Clerk Nancy Scheer.

Motion made by McCallum and seconded by Klein to approve the agenda for the meeting. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Motion made by Klein and seconded by McCallum to approve the minutes of the February 19, 2008 meeting. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Pursuant to published legal notice in the Thursday, February 21, 2008 edition of The Norfolk Daily News, Chairman Uhlir opened a public hearing at 9:01 A.M. to receive citizens' input regarding exemption applications submitted by religious, educational, and charitable organizations. Six individuals were in attendance at the hearing representing four organizations.

Dan Pospisil, president of Norfolk Congregation of Jehovah's Witness, reported that no changes have been made for the church property and he requested continued exemption.

Jan Einsphar, President of the Board for Norfolk Arts Center, reported that the Norfolk Arts Center is one of four agencies receiving Nebraska Public Power District funds, referred to as POP funds, from the City of Norfolk. She explained that the Norfolk Community Theatre, YMCA, and Elkhorn Valley Museum were the other agencies that received the POP funds. She reported that the Norfolk Arts Centers had a large debt on their building and the POP funds have been used to pay for the building. She stated that they brought the Norfolk Arts Center budget and grant if the Board members want to review these documents. Chairman Uhlir responded that it was not necessary for the Board to review these documents since the County Assessor approved the exemption application.

County Clerk Nancy Scheer reported that a letter and supporting documentation was received from David Gosnell, Administrative Bishop for the Church of God Midlands Regional Office, in support of continued exempt status for Norfolk Church of God located at 407 Pasewalk Avenue in Norfolk.

Deputy County Assessor Judy Bickley reported that County Assessor Jeff Hackerott approved all the exemption applications submitted for consideration by the Board of Equalization.

- 1) Letter dated February 28, 2008 from Madison County Railroad Transportation Safety District regarding Union Pacific Railroad Yard Improvements

County Extension Office staff members presented the 2007 annual report to the County Board. Extension Educator Lee Sherry explained that the 2007 slogan was "Know How, Know Now". She explained the UNL goals in the county were to provide reliable, research-based information on agriculture and natural resources, consumer and family economics, community and economic development, and 4-H and youth development. She stated that the goal of the Extension Office is simply to help put knowledge to work. She reported that the following grants totaling approximately $176,000 were received in 2007: $47,500 Children Youth Families At Risk (CYFAR), $2,000 Nutrition Backpack Grant, $1,700 4-H Youth/Adult Partnership Grant, $10,000 Livestock Marketing Grant, $65,000 Risk Management Grant, $7,500 Diversified Ag Grant, $20,000 Innovation Grant, $7,500 Rural Rehabilitation Grant, and $500 Kinder Morgan Grant.

Lee Sherry reported that 4-H Assistant Sarah Nelson is involved with the 4-H youth development programs and works with 18 organized 4-H clubs with a total of 294 members. She explained that Sarah Nelson worked with the school enrichment program to develop and utilize positive character traits, positive decision making skills, communication and leadership skills, and citizenship and community service. She also reported that this program uses new and emerging science and technology to build an interest and identify opportunities for youth to develop skills in these fields. Ms. Sherry also reported that some of the school enrichment programs offered were Life on the Farm programs including Embryology, Microbes, Robotics, GPS Day, and Bread in a Bag, and Project Learning Tree. She reported that a total of 2,266 youth participated in the 4-H school enrichment programs. In addition, she stated that the monetary value of the volunteer hours donated by adults and youth was $46,500.

Michelle Kroupa, Associate Program Educator explained that she works with the Nutrition Education Program. She reported that the program was implemented to help participants develop skills and learn behaviors leading to improved nutritional well-being. She reported that the adult programs include Norfolk Alternatives for Success, Women's Empowering Life Line, ARBOT, Head Start, Wise Woman, Parent Night at Schools, English Second Language in Madison, and the CYFAR Backpack Program. Ms. Kroupa reported that she teaches the youth nutrition education program at Head Start, Madison Elementary, Northern Hills Elementary, Lincoln Elementary, Washington Elementary, Jefferson Elementary, Newman Grove, and Madison Middle School.

Tim Lemmons, Ag Educator for Madison, Stanton, Pierce, and Wayne Counties reported that he focuses in conducting programs in ag economics, risk management, business management, and information technology. He explained that some of the agricultural programs include Quicken for Ag Producers, Land Owner's Update program, Corn Soybean Update, Winning the Game, Crop Insurance and PreHarvest Marketing, and Market Journal Toolbox. He reported that other agricultural programs include commercial and private pesticide applicators training, chemigation certification training, and crop protection clinics. Mr. Lemmons reported that he assisted with developing a DVD series entitled "Production of the Ultra High Stock Density" which includes topics on organics, viticulture, grass based systems, horticulture, and agroforestry systems. He explained that he conducts information technology training including Farming with Computer Technology, GPS/GIS, Email, Excel and Access, and Internet. In addition, he stated that he assists with the 4-H programs including robotics, computer programming, rocketry, and animal husbandry.

The Board took no action.

Noxious Weed Control Authority Board members Eudell Feldmann and Earl Reeves were present to discuss payment of personnel costs for the person recently hired to assist C.J. Rudnick. Chairman McCallum recommended that the Board recess into executive session because the agenda item involves a personnel issue.

Motion made by Klein and seconded by Uhlir to recess into executive session to discuss a personnel matter. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

The Board recessed into executive session at 10:49 A.M. with Eudell Feldmann, Earl Reeves, Richard Johnson, and Nancy Scheer present.

Motion made by Klein and seconded by Uhlir to recess from executive session. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.
