Motion was made by Uhlir and seconded by McCallum to approve the minutes of the April 27, 2010 meeting. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Pursuant to published legal notice in the Friday, April 30, 2010 edition of The Norfolk Daily News, Chairman Klein opened a hearing at 9:02 A.M. to consider testimony on new exemption applications for real or personal property filed with the County Assessor's Office.

Ruth Matthews-Mott, Executive Director of CASA of Northeast Nebraska, reported that CASA is a non-profit organization. She explained that the exemption application is for personal property consisting of a computer, copier, and office furniture. She stated that funding for CASA is provided by the county, United Way, grants, and fund raisers. Commissioner McCallum questioned if the exemption application was for any real property and Ms. Matthews-Mott responded that CASA rents office space and the suite is shared with two other businesses. After discussion, it was moved by McCallum and seconded by Uhlir to approve the exemption application filed by CASA of Northeast Nebraska. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Judy Bohn, Business Manager for Christ Lutheran Church, explained that the exemption application submitted was for property located at 606 South 4th Street in Norfolk, which is a house adjoining the church property. She explained that the house had previously been rented out; however, it is currently being used for storage. She reported that an application for grant funding has been submitted to Northeast Nebraska Economic Development District to assist with the costs of moving the house or tearing it down; however, the grant has not been approved at this time. She requested that the house be removed from the tax rolls. After discussion, it was moved by McCallum and seconded by Uhlir to approve the exemption application filed by Christ Lutheran Church. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Jerry Schomer, President of Madison Junior Wrestling Association, explained that a building has been constructed for use by the Madison wrestling programs. He stated that the organization is non-profit and that two fund raisers are conducted each year, including a wrestling tournament and the sale of fireworks. Commissioner McCallum questioned if the organization intended to use the building for any other outside activities, such as wedding or graduation receptions. Jerry Schomer responded that tentatively some other functions may be held in the building, but it depends on the monthly expenses associated with utility costs for the building. He stated that he understands that the organization can't make a profit from the rental of the building. Commissioner McCallum explained that the organization could get in trouble if the facility is rented out for graduation parties and other functions because people won't like it if the organization is tax exempt. After discussion, it was moved by Uhlir and seconded by McCallum to approve the exemption application filed by Madison Junior Wrestling Association. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Sarah Mitchell, Chief Financial Officer of TCH Medical Clinic, explained that the clinic is owned by Tilden Community Hospital, which is a city owned non-profit facility. She explained that the exemption application is for a building located in the City of Battle Creek which is rented. She reported that the City of Battle Creek is helping with the utility costs. County Assessor Jeff Hackerott explained that the exemption application is for personal property including tables and desks. After discussion, it was moved by McCallum and seconded by Uhlir to approve the exemption application filed by TCH Medical Clinic. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Pastor Sharon Stevens, representing the Nebraska Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church, reported that the exemption application is for a house located at 1200 BelRidge Road in Norfolk which is used for a parsonage for the district superintendent. She explained that she picked out three houses, and conference representatives chose the one located on BelRidge Road. County Assessor Jeff Hackerott reported that that house was purchased on January 19, 2010 for $215,000. After discussion, it was moved by McCallum and seconded by Uhlir to approve the exemption application submitted by the Nebraska Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Nays, none. Motion carried.

Warren Toelle, president of the Battle Creek Library Foundation, explained that the library foundation purchased the Methodist Church and remodeled the building. He stated that when the remodeling is complete the library will be relocated. In addition, he estimated that the process would be completed in July, at which time the building would be turned over to the City of Battle Creek. After discussion, it was moved by McCallum and seconded by Uhlir to approve the exemption application for the Battle Creek Library Foundation. Roll call vote: Ayes, McCallum, Uhlir, and Klein. Motion carried.

Chairman Klein closed the hearing at 9:12 A.M.

County Assessor Jeff Hackerott submitted the following tax list corrections:

- #2610: Bethany Bossard, 301 North Elm Street, Tilden
Addition to the tax rolls in the amount of $67.00 for correction to the 2009 real estate taxes due to acceleration of taxes for removal of a mobile home from the county
- #2611: Sheryl Krueger, Lyle Raff, and Ronald Raff, 803 North 14th Place, Norfolk
Deduction from the tax rolls in the amount of $354.52 for correction to the 2009 real estate taxes due to reduction in the 2009 assessed valuation
